Continuing Education Series 2015

MAN, WOMAN, AND THE CATHOLIC VISION OF THE HUMAN PERSON

Wednesdays 6:30-8:30PM | Begins September 9, 2015

The course explores the vision of the human being that undergirds the sexual difference between man and woman. With the help of St. John Paul II, for whom the sexual difference reveals that the person is created for love and communion, the first part of the course delves into the theological and philosophical roots of sexual difference. The second part engages with current cultural questions regarding sexuality, from feminism to the transgender movement.
